Dear Pat:

I can't tell you what a great thrill it was to be with you and your colleagues at the Cooking Club last weekend. You are all mighty fine Americans and to have the opportunity to stand up to say something positive before such a group about CIA is something I prize.

It was awfully good to see you and Preet again. I will try to make it out there as often as I can if you promise to increase your number of visits this way.

Angie joins me in sending much love to you both.

Faithfully yours,

THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

General Marshall S. Carter

STATOTHR

Dear Boss:

Thanks so much for your kind invitation. If okay with you, it looks good for Saturday, September 25th. It will be great joining up with you and your colleagues. As for now, I plan to arrive in Colorado Springs early-evening Friday the 24th and return to Washington, Sunday mid-morning. Will give a call with flight times when finalized. I'll stay in a motel.

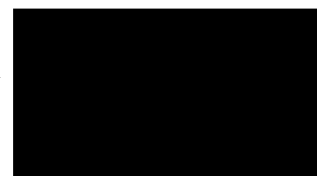

Hope you were able to catch a glimpse of the TV program on "intelligence" last Sunday morning starring Senator Gary Hart and yours truly. Have had some pretty good vibes about the show and would be interested in your views.

Angie returns from Craig this evening with lots of stories, I'm sure. She's been hobnobbing with her friends and family and reminiscing about her high school days during a class reunion.

Hope all goes well with you and Preet. Much love and see you soon.

Faithfully yours,
